Cold Case

Cleveland Division of Police

Colon, Javier

Media Synopsis:

On October 1, 2006, the defendant carjacked a woman and her adult son at gunpoint from a parking lot in the Warehouse District. He forced them to drive to an isolated spot on Train Avenue where he forced the male victim into the trunk and sexually assaulted the female.

During the attack on the female victim, her son managed to escape the trunk and engaged in a physical altercation with the defendant. The defendant shot him in the chest and fled.

In 2016, a palm print taken at the crime scene was matched to the defendant through a national database. Touch DNA from the female victim's clothing was collected and also matched to the defendant.

On January 25, defendant pled guilty to Rape, Kidnapping, and Attempted Murder.

Sentencing is scheduled to being at 11:00 a.m.
