Major Trial

Cleveland Division of Police

Hill, Devonta

Media Synopsis:

On March 10, 2012, Hill, then 19, of Euclid, fired shots in the parking lot of Wilbert's Bar located in Cleveland, striking a vehicle with three women inside. Hill then attempted to flee the area in his vehicle when he became trapped by other vehicles on the road. Cleveland Police Officers approached Hill's vehicle from the driver's side and removed Hill and a backseat passenger.

At the same time, on the passenger's side of the vehicle, an off-duty officer was attempting to remove Kenneth Smith, 20, of Euclid, from the passenger's seat. The off-duty officer knew there was a gun in the car and observed it on the center console. Smith lunged as if he were reaching for the gun and the officer shot Smith once in the head. Smith was taken to Metro Hospital where he was pronounced dead.

Trial is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m.
